Seniors to Bring Tough Competition to Greenville

2009 North Carolina USTA League Senior State Championships

Greensboro, NC ~ May 1, 2009 ~ North Carolina's best senior tennis teams from around the state are packing their bags and heading for Greenville to compete in the 2009 North Carolina USTA League Senior State Championships. Play will begin bright and early on Thursday morning and continue until the last match is decided on Sunday afternoon. The matches will be played on six local area sites: Baywood Racquet Club, Courtside Athletic Club, Greenville Country Club, Match Point Racquet Club, Greene Ridge Racquet Club and Washington Racquet Club.

Eight of the 75 teams will earn state championship crowns and be granted passage on to the USTA Southern Sectional Championships to be held in Birmingham, Alabama July 25-August 2, 2009. Winners in Birmingham will then advance to National Championships later this year.

The popular Player's Party will be held on Friday, June 5th at 7:00pm at the Greenville Convention Center. The party will feature a cash bar, dinner and DJ. Players are free, guests $15. Adults only please.

USTA League Tennis was established to provide adult recreational tennis players throughout the country the opportunity to compete against players of similar ability levels. For tournament specific information please visit: www.ncseniorleaguetenis.com.

The North Carolina Tennis Association (NCTA), a not-for-profit organization, is the state affiliate of the United States Tennis Association in North Carolina and is commonly referred to as USTA North Carolina. The NCTA was founded in 1973 and since that time has focused on its singular mission: To promote and develop the game of tennis in North Carolina. The office is headquartered conveniently in Greensboro, NC. To learn more information about tennis in North Carolina and how to become a USTA member today, please visit us at www.nctennis.com.
