

Dana Broadus

Marketing and Communications Coordinator

Dana was raised in Clayton, North Carolina and started her tennis journey through junior leagues. She continued to play tennis through high school before moving to Greensboro in 2020 to attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. At UNCG, Dana studied English, Spanish, and Anthropology while working as a Media and Publications Assistant for the university. She graduated in 2023 with international honors from the Lloyd International Honors College.

Dana joined USTA North Carolina in 2024 as the Marketing and Communications Coordinator and is excited about connecting to the local community through tennis!
