

Matt Galles

Coordinator of Adult Play

Matt grew up in the beautifully flat and windy corn fields of West Des Moines, Iowa. Throughout his childhood, he played many sports, but fell in love with tennis at 12. He went to college at the University of Iowa and studied political science, psychology, and Arabic. Given his educational history, the choice was obvious after graduation: move to North Carolina and work for the USTA.

Although not a native, Matt Loves it in Greensboro. The weather is great, the mountains are beautiful, the people are friendly, and tennis is thriving!

GET TO KNOW MATT

Who is your favorite professional tennis player?

Carlos Alcaraz and Elena Rybakina.

What is your favorite part of your job?

I love being at events, immersed in the competition.

What do you like to do in your free time?

Aside from playing tennis, I like to cook, play chess, and play video games.

What is your dream vacation?

I would love to go to Australia during the Australian open. Or a road trip to Alaska to see the Northern Lights.

What actor would play you in a movie about your life?

Probably Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson. People have said we have similar builds.
