IV. Sanctioning Process

A. Priority Sanctioning. Sanctioning a tournament during this period gives the tournament priority on choice of dates for the following year.

- a. For 2023, priority sanctioning will be November 1st - November 15th. Tournament Directors will submit the tournament for sanctioning between these dates and they will be reviewed and approved before January 1.

C. No tournament may be rescheduled without the approval of the Sanction & Schedule Committee.

It is at the Tournament Director's discretion if they would like to refund their players more money than what would be included above.

VI. Player Expectations

A. Adult players are required to tell the Tournament Director if they will continue to play in the consolation or not immediately following their main draw loss. For players who have stated they will play consolation but are then a default no show, all points received in that tournament will no longer be guaranteed.

B. Ranking System. The USTA National Tournament Regulation IX (Ranking System) is followed for all USTA NC Adult Tournaments.

C. Point Suspension System. This is a system under which Adult and Family players are assessed points for unsportsmanlike behavior in USTA Sanctioned tournaments. See USTA's Friend at Court for specific violations.

D. Concurrent Tournament Rule: No player shall enter more than one USTA Sanctioned tournament where the scheduled dates overlap unless they have been eliminated from the earlier tournament

a. The player would need to sign up for the second tournament AFTER they have been eliminated from the first tournament.

E. No coaching is permitted during tournament matches.

F. Sportsmanship. All players participating in USTA Sanctioned events are expected to know the rules of playing a tennis match including keeping score and how to play a tiebreak, be familiar with the general rules of fair play contained in the Code and agree to abide by USTA Rules and Regulations. Detailed rules and regulations can be found in the USTA's Friend at Court.
